

New water access licence with zero licence shares

Use this form to apply for a new water access licence with zero licence shares under section 61(1)(b) of the Water Management Act 2000 (WM Act).

More information about water access licences can be found on the Department of Planning and Environment's website at water.dpie.nsw.gov.au/licensing-and-trade/licensing.

A water access licence permits the licence holder to take water allocations credited to the licence in accordance with the terms and conditions of the licence.

A water access licence with zero licence shares will not be credited with any water allocations as the licence has no share in the available water.

In order to take water under a new water access licence with zero licence shares, you will need to

- purchase or lease licence shares from another licence holder, or
- purchase water allocations from another licence holder.

Who can apply?

Any person can apply for a new water access licence with zero licence shares.

Who can use this application form?

Responsibilities for granting and managing water supply work approvals and water use approvals are shared between the Department of Planning and Environment (the department) and WaterNSW.

This application form is for use by the department's customers:

- government agencies, including other NSW government agencies, local councils and the Commonwealth
- state-owned corporations
- water utilities, water supply authorities and licensed network operators under the Water Industry Competition Act 2006
- mining activities
- irrigation corporations
- public schools and hospitals
- Aboriginal communities and businesses.

If you are not a customer of the department, your one-stop shop for licensing services including water supply work approvals and water use approvals is WaterNSW. Go to www.waternsw.com.au.
